Killed by Hunters.

J. E. Burgher had a very valuable steer to be shot on Monday, and as there were several hunters in the field where the steer was grazing, they are supposed to have done the killing.

The steer would have weighed about 1000 pounds, and he had been offered 3½ cents for him.

"Yes," said the old man, addressing his young visitor, "I am proud of my girls, and would like to see them comfortably married, and as I have made a little money, they will not go to their husbands penniless. There's Mary, 25 years old, an a real good girl, I shall give her $5,000 when she marries. Then comes Bet, who won't see 35 again, and I shall give her $10,000; and the man who takes Eliza, who is 40, will have $15,000 with her." The young man reflected a moment or so, and then inquired: "You haven't one about 50, have you?"—Ex.

—The following is related by the Stanford Journal: "A family who left Madison county for the West twelve years ago with $15,000 passed through Stanford in wagons Sunday to their old home. They lived most of the time in Indian Territory where they almost starved to death. "No more West in mine," remarked one of the family. "Kentucky is good enough for me and if we had stayed here we might to-day have had money, while as it is we haven't enough to pay toll the balance of the way." They had been on the road five weeks and were pretty well tired out."
